

What is Going On Tonight

Moving Pictures at the Auditorium.
Moving Pictures at the Broad Theatre.
Vandeville and Moving Pictures at the Savoy Theatre.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

State Taxes.
Attention is called to the fact that many people get their lists in the Treasurer's Office too late to have their securities exempted. The Treasurer informs us that there must be done at once. Do not wait too long, and thus fall of the exemption. Read the treasurer's advertisement in this issue, and do it now.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING.

Gustav Boehman of Hartford to Address Gathering at Buckingham Memorial.

Tomorrow at five o'clock under Y. M. C. A. auspices on the grounds of Buckingham Memorial, there will be an important open air meeting.

The speaker of the occasion will be Gustav Boehman of Hartford, who will have a message of interest to the public.

Mr. Boehman has been for many years a leader in the labor union of Hartford, and in recent years he has been very active in Christian work.

Both men and women are invited and chairs will be provided for all.

AUDITORIUM.

Jane and Katherine Lee, in The Two Little Imps, Feature Today at the Auditorium—Coming Monday and Tuesday, The Gray Ghost, the Universal's Greatest Serial—4 Shows Today, 1, 3, 5, 7, and 8, 30.

Two Little Imps, the William Fox photoplay, starring Jane and Katherine Lee, five and seven years old, respectively, will close its run at the Auditorium theatre today.

The picture has had a wonderful showing here. It is something out of the ordinary and very well done. Mothers like to watch them and wish that their own offspring had all of the genius shown by the Lees.

These two little imps are a big help to their Uncle Billy in his wooing of Betty Murray. They bring about the redemption of Betty's brother Bob, and they aid in capturing two burglars, Jane going so far as to smash a flatiron on the head of one of the crooks. It's a fine picture.

Handy Mann in Domestic Hound, and the latest Mutual Weekly complete the programme. Coming Monday and Tuesday is The Gray Ghost, with Priscilla Deane, Eddie Pola and Harry Carter. The Gray Ghost is the greatest serial ever produced by the Universal.

Also Alice Brady in The Divorce Game, and the latest war news in the Universal Weekly.

Four shows today, 1, 3, 5, 7, and 8, 30.

DAVIS THEATRE.

Four Complete Shows Today at 1, 3, 5, 7, and 8 p. m.—Three Big Kait Acts and Wm. Desmond in a Triangular Feature, a Show That You Should See.

There will be four complete shows at the Davis today and the show is one that nobody can afford to miss. The feature attraction is the Farrell Taylor company, who present a new and usually funny comedy skit entitled the African Duke, where are four people in the act and they introduce several musical numbers besides the singing and comedy. This act has been a tremendous hit the past two days and you certainly will enjoy it.

The three Trio girls come next and they are a charming trio of singers. The other act is the Trio Violets, two dainty misses, who have a singing, dancing and costume change offering that appeals to everyone. All three acts are standard big time specialties.

The Triangle feature is The Master of His House, a comedy, written by Kim, William Desmond and Alma Reuben appear. It is the story of a society girl who marries a wealthy but rough westerner and after marriage spends his money freely but is little of a wife to him. His Cool Nerve, a very funny comedy, completes the bill. Special music by the Davis augmented concert orchestra.

BREED THEATRE.

Hazel Dawn and Bert Lytle in "The Lone Wolf" Feature for Today. Norma Talmadge Coming Monday and Tuesday in "Poppy."

Today is the last chance to see Herbert Brennon's great film masterpiece "The Lone Wolf," starring Hazel Dawn and Bert Lytle, and which is the feature at the Breed theatre.

In the presentation of this swiftly moving, tense story of mystery and adventure, the screen is supreme in the field of entertainment, and when such a story is the work of so brilliant an author as Louis Joseph Vance, and the film version is prepared by such a master hand as Herbert Brennon, the result is certainly well worth watching.

In addition to this eight-reel feature the Breed presents the Hearst-Pathé Weekly.

Coming Monday and Tuesday, Norma Talmadge in "Poppy," a wonderful photoplay that tells of a road to happiness through blood and tears.
